

Training Biblical Servant-Leaders

Jesus Christ said, “Whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister, and whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant” (Matthew 20:26-27). In the YCLA (Young Christian Leaders’ Alliance), it is our goal to live out Christ’s principles in service to God and those around us. We believe true leadership and influence are reached not by the position one attains, but by the character on which he acts in his everyday life.

Recently, our group has completed a new guide for youth in Christian leadership, entitled “Upholding the Light – The BEAMS Handbook for Young Christian Leaders.” “BEAMS” stands for “Becoming Energetic And Mobilized Servants.” A “beam” refers both to a part of a structure that upholds a roof or wall, as well as to a ray of light from an intense source. Those who follow Christ exemplify both aspects. They serve and support a Godly mission, while “letting their light shine” so that others may glorify our Heavenly Father!

This outreach will provide practical advice and sound teaching for a new generation of Biblical leadership. If you would like to know more, please contact the YCLA using the information below.

How Does BEAMS Work?

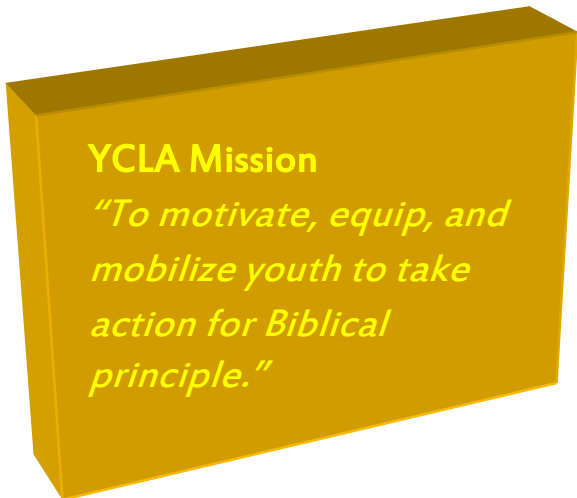

BEAMS may be used by youth groups, clubs, or in a distinct class setting, to encourage a Biblical worldview. The basis of the system is a set of ranks named after the divisions of the electromagnetic spectrum of light. If you're concerned about the complexity of the material, don't worry; it's not rocket science! At the same time, BEAMS presents much to challenge the mind, from scientific discovery and application to hints on effective influence, and from Bible memorization to opportunities for team action and evangelism. Contact us today, or visit our page at www.YoungChristianLeaders.org/beams.aspx for a full description of this new training ministry.

Servant-Leadership:
Go Down to Come Up!

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
