Have you ever wondered whether a group could exist, created by excited and principled youth, whose goal was to network those same youth in support of our liberties and the Biblical worldview which underlies them? So did Josiah Magnuson and the co-founders of the Young Christian Leaders' Alliance (YCLA). The YCLA was created in 2007 by young people from three original families who realized the awesome potential of a motivated and coordinated action of teens in our culture. They wanted to join with others to impact for Christ, and thus began a unique organization.

We want YOU to be a part of this ministry! If you are a concerned young person from age 10-21, please go to www.yclalliance.org/join.htm to learn how to become a member for free. Also, be sure to register online, to begin receiving our monthly e-newsletter and access the Forums.

Joining the YCLA gives you the opportunity to learn to lead for your Creator. Don't sit around eating potato chips! Make an impact by helping us train and unite principled youth in effective influence for God's Word.

What Do We Do?

Today, many of our friends and family members have become disillusioned and purposeless. We all know someone who perhaps has once been a positive, effective influence, but seems to have drifted. The purpose of the Young Christian Leaders' Alliance is to provide resources and opportunities so we can reach out to our peers. We also want to provide a place for accountability and encouragement for believing youth. It is our goal to live out the power of Christ, and equip others to spread the Biblical worldview. Then they, too, will help lead others as they follow Christ and regain a spirit of freedom in Him.
